A LOT of bad boys recently raided the watermelon patch of our cotemporary Gen. NORTHCOTT, of the Clarksburg Tele graph, and carried of a large bag full. Sympathy for a brother editor in trouble leads us to rejoice that the ring leader of the rascals was arrested and sent to jail. His name is John Scott.

Ir cannot be denied that the much ridiculed "panier" worn by the fairer half of creation has its uses. A Mississippi dis patch in our columns this morning illustrates one of them. A woman used hers to smuggle a revolver to her husband in jail, armed with which he frightened the guard and made his escape.

THE Graphic balloon is to go up Wednesday. All that goes up must come wish Mesars. Wise and McDonald. It they are as smart as we credit them with being they will steer clear of that much talked of "eastern current" and get into one coming this way.

At this writing, Saturday, the grand rush for the camp grounds has commenced. Vehicles, with their trains of dust, roll through the streets; "camp meeting" is the word in every mouth; stowes are laden with the culinary preparations for the morrow, and the hoosewife, with sextlet face, is besy among pots, kettles and pans. Sunday, of course, is the great day. Every man, woman or child that cas possibly be present, will be. As it is, every hoof and wheel in the livery stables have been secured, and it will be impossible to hire a "living critter." servative of Saturday says of it:

Bx-Gov. Johnson still retains his power of body and mind remarkably well for a man of his age. He is getting the old man-uscripts, containing a history of the Simp-son Creek Baptist Church, copied anew in one volume, as the old ones are very imper-fect and decaying considerably from the effect of time. They contain a history of the Church back to the year A. D. 1781.

A DASTANDLY ACT.—On Tuesday even-ng last, two men, who ought to be in the Penitentlary, were seen to drive two cows in the railroad track a short distance east in the railroad track a short distance ast on the railroad track a short distance east of town, just as the way-train whistled for a crossing a few hundred yards around a curve. The man left the cattle on the track and took intache bushes. The cattle alarm was duly sounded, the speed of the train was abated, and the cattle es caped narrowly. Only for the care and skill of the engineer the cows would both have been fulled. All this was witnessed by a gentleman some distance, off who atterwards role on the track and looked for the scoundrels, but they were not to for the scoundrels, but they were not to be seen. Hanging is none too good for them.—Moundwille Reporter.

THE MOUSDAYGLE ROLLING MILL— The suits against the rolling mill have been withdrawn by the stockholders, who refused, sometime since, to pay in their stock, and had sued the company for who formerly resided in Tucker and represented that county in the Legislature, has located at Clarksburg.
